

What If's For Parents

At the middle school, many adults are involved in a child's life. Parents may be unsure who to contact with a particular concern or request. We hope the following suggestions are helpful.

WHAT IF.....my child is being teased or bullied? Contact your child's school counselor. The counselor will then work with teachers and/or the Assistant Headmaster to investigate the situation.

WHAT IF...I would like to discuss a personal or family issue my child is dealing with? Contact your child's school counselor.

WHAT IF...my child is having academic issues in a particular class? Always contact the teacher first. Then, if you have additional concerns, contact your son or daughter's school counselor.

WHAT IF...my child is having behavioral issues? Contact your child's team leader or school counselor first. If you are still concerned, contact the Assistant Principal.

WHAT IF.....I have a question about the curriculum? Contact your child's teacher first. If you have additional concerns, contact the appropriate curriculum leader.

WHAT IF.....my child's schedule is incorrect? Contact the school counselor first. If you have additional concerns, contact the Assistant Principal.
